

Gamefied Writing

Easy Online Assignments

Groovelit
Links

Here are some ready-made writing games on Groovelit that are perfect for engaging young minds. Click the links below to get your own copies of each game.

Sports and Active Hobbies

Draft Your Dream Team

Imagine you are building a sports team using characters from the book you are currently reading. Choose any sport and pick five players, including yourself. Who makes your team and what role does each person play?

Coach for a Day

You are the coach of a team made from book characters. One character isn't pulling their weight. Who is it and why? How would you motivate them to improve?

Personal Trainer Picks

You are the coach of a team made from book characters. One character isn't pulling their weight. Who is it and why? How would you motivate them to improve?

Camp in the Story World

Imagine setting up a camp or base in the world of your book. Where would it be located? Describe what it looks like and what you include to survive or stay comfortable. Why is this a good spot?

The Survival Squad

The characters from the book you are reading are dropped into a survival challenge. You can choose three to be on your team. Who do you pick and why? How would each person help the group survive?

The Road Trip

You must go on a long road trip with two characters from your book. Who do you bring? What could go wrong on the journey? What makes this trip memorable?

Hobby Swap

A character from your book tries your favourite hobby or sport. How do they do? What do they find easy or hard? What does this show about their personality?

Packing for the Journey

A character from your book must pack for an important journey. What do they bring and how do they organise it? Describe the items they would not leave behind. What do these choices reveal about them?

Want to discuss Groovelit strategies and share games with others? Check out the Groovelit Facebook community here.

Gaming and Technology

Video Game Avatars

Turn three characters from your book into video game characters. What are their special abilities or power-ups? What are their weaknesses? Which one would players choose most?

Battle Royale

If the characters in the book you are reading competed in a totally different challenge against each other, who would win? Think about whether the challenge would be physical or mental.

Group Chat Drama

Your book's characters are in a group chat together. Who sends the most messages? Who stays silent? What kind of drama might happen?

Tech Genius or Disaster?

Give a character from your book a brand-new piece of technology, and describe what happens. Do they use it wisely or cause chaos? What do they do next? What does this show about them?

Danger and Movie Scenes

Action Movie Escape

A character from your book must escape a dangerous situation like in a movie. What is the danger? How do they react under pressure? Do they succeed or fail?

Zombie Apocalypse Team

A zombie apocalypse begins in your story world. Choose three characters to survive with you, and describe what could happen in a story format. What role does each person play in the group? How does your team make it?

Hero or Sidekick?

If the book you are reading became a movie, which character would be the hero? Who would be the sidekick? What makes them fit these roles?

The Big Decision

A character must make a risky decision in a dangerous moment. What is the choice? What could go wrong? Why does this moment matter?

Want to discuss Groovelit strategies and share games with others? Check out the Groovelit Facebook community here.